Gas Stoves for Summer Use

Are rapidly displacing Wood, Coal and Charcoal for cooking purposes. No bringing of coal nor wood, no ashes, no dust. Already and THOROUGHLY SAFE meals can be cooked in shorter time, and with more comfort than by any other method. Where used they have given perfect satisfaction, cost no greater than that of an ordinary wood stove. Ladies who have used them declare that they are indispensable, especially in Summer, and they COULD NOT KEEP HOUSE WITHOUT ONE.

The Gas Company propose to make a

NET PRICE OF $1.50 PER THOUSAND FEET,

from May 1 to Oct. 1, to ALL PERSONS USING FOR COOKING PURPOSES.

Read the following opinions from well known ladies who have used Gas Stoves in Decatur:

R. J. STRATTON,
Supt. of Decatur Gaslight and Coke Co.

R. J. STRATTON, Sup't. Dear Sir—I am using a No. 1 Gas Range and it is with pleasure that I bear witness to its many good qualities. For utility, cleanliness, comfort and economy, it will I could desire. Anything can be cooked on it that can be cooked on any stove, with as my opinion, less expense and certainly with less trouble and more comfort. I cheerfully recommend it.
Yours Truly, MRS. HENRY ELWOOD.

MR. R. J. STRATTON, Supt. Dear Sir—I want to say to you that the gas stove you furnished to me last Summer is much more satisfactory than I had hoped for. I can do every kind of cooking with it, and the regularity of the heat gives better results than any other stove. I should not desire to keep house without it.
MRS. FRANK H. HALL.

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

Argenta.

Miss May Brockway is quite ill.

Farmers are threshing their grain and disposing of the bulk of it.

Mrs. Ollie Maxwell left Monday to visit her parents and relatives at Greenup, her former home.

The Argenta schools will open in about four weeks with Prof. J. G. Keller of Monticello for principal.

The township Sabbath School convention will be held at the C. P. church Thursday, August 15, beginning at 9:30 a. m.

Rev. A. C. Scott, who has been away holding U. B. quarterly meetings, returned home Monday evening. He reports pleasant sessions on his work.

Monday while Mr. and Mrs. Charles Towsie of Newburg, were riding in a buggy their horse took fright at a box by the road, wheeled suddenly, throwing both Mr. and Mrs. Towsie out, hurting them somewhat but not seriously. The horse was captured about a mile and a half from where the accident occurred.

While Charles Fairbanks, a son of Samuel Fairbanks, was riding out to look for some mules he dropped the halter rein and as he reached down to recover it the horse took fright at a coal hod the boy had swung on his arm and in his alarm and plunging he threw the boy and trampled on him, doing the lad very serious injuries.

Wallace & Co's Great Show

Among the many amusement ventures of the present season none, perhaps, is more worthy of commendatory notice than that of Wallace & Co.'s three-ring circus and menagerie, which is to be at the ball park Monday, August 26th. The entertainment is in every way creditable to the management, and is popular with the public wherever it goes. The circus department is unexceptionable, and, with a large company of performers second to none in point of skill and capacity, it presents many features that are new. The menagerie contains a large number of living wild animals which are seldom exhibited.

GERMANY says the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, just now seems to be plastered over nearly as much as England with trusts, and some alarm is beginning to be felt in the industrial and commercial world of the former country as a consequence. In many branches of business the tendency seems to be not merely toward combination, but toward combination of such a form as will prevent control or inspection by the authorities and defeat the law. The design, in most instances, is not only to advance prices, but to restrict production, the cutting down of the supply being naturally deemed an essential preliminary proceeding in the scheme. The drift toward combination which we see in the United States and which is manifested so conspicuously and offensively in the Standard Oil, sugar, whisky, lead and other trusts, is in operation throughout the world, in high protection, low protection and free trade countries, and by labor as well as capital. Nobody doubts that it will be brought under proper legal regulation and restraint, however, so far as regards the United States, at least.

CENTRALIA and vicinity is noted for its wonderful production of fruit. The past season there were over 1,000 acres in strawberries alone, the shipments averaging $125 per acre or a grand total of $125,000. It required 100,000 crates and 2,500,000 quart boxes to ship them in. The cash paid out for picking was $125,000. About 1,200 tramps gathered about the place to pick berries at from 2 to 2½ cents a quart.

The villages and cities upon the rivers below Johnstown are beginning to realize the full force of the great disaster at that place in the lowering of their sanitary condition. Plainly the streams are contaminated; there are over thirty cases of typhoid fever in the hospital at Allegheny, and from 200 to 300 cases of the same disease under treatment in private families.

Merit Wins

We take pleasure in recommending to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Bucklen's Arnica Bitters, and have never handled medicines that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to return the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. For sale by Dr. A. J. Stoner's Drug Store. a m

MURAT HALSTEAD tells the Republicans of Ohio, in substance, to pitch in and elect the State ticket and the Legislature, and not to think of the Senatorship question until afterward. This is sound advice. A discussion of the merits and demerits of the various Republicans who would like to go to the Senate would please the Democrats highly just now, but it would not be just the thing to give harmony or enthusiasm to the rank and file of the Republican party.

Neuralgia causes much Insanity!

The highest medical authorities of Europe and America have recently decided that a large percentage of cases of insanity result solely from excruciating pains of Neuralgia of the head and face. If any member of your family suffers at a moment's notice, induce them to try Ballard's Snow Liniment. One application will afford immediate relief and you will soon be rid of a dangerous and tormenting disease. Ballard's Snow Liniment is the most penetrating Liniment known. It positively cures Rheumatism, Lame Back, Contracted Muscles, Old Sores, Corns, Pimples, etc. It penetrates and opens up the pores, drawing all poisonous matter to the surface, restoring and promoting a natural circulation of the blood through the diseased parts.

Origin of Lynch Law

It is not generally known that the term 'lynch law' originated in Campbell county, Va., before the revolutionary war. At that period the country was thinly settled and was infested with knaves and desperadoes—too many of them, apparently, for the local authorities to adequately punish. Col. Charles Lynch, a distinguished officer of the revolutionary army, undertook to rid his country of the outlaws. He organized a force, arrested the outlaws, and having satisfied himself and comrades of the guilt of the accused, executed them without reference to the constituted authorities. While not altogether approving of the desperate remedy for a desperate case, the beneficial effect of Col. Lynch's action was recognized, and has since been known as 'Lynch's law' or 'Lynch law.'

Lynch's process of meting out speedy justice extended to other parts of the country, and is a well recognized form of redress of grievances today, particularly for that class of offenses that are popularly believed not to be adequately punished by the statute and courts of the state. Col. Lynch's brother gave his name to Lynchburg, and left a son who was subsequently governor of Louisiana.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

An Early Mill

The want of mills is everywhere a great deprivation in a new country, and have been the devices for overcoming it. A substitute for a mill was used in the early settling of western New York and probably to some extent in Ohio. It consists of a stump hollowed out by fire as a mortar, with a log attached to the end of a young spling bent over to act as a pestle. The process was slow and tedious, it being a day's work to convert a bushel of corn into samp.

The early settlers in western New York when they owned a few slaves, which some of them did, employed them in this drudgery, hence the process was vulgarly termed 'nuggeling corn.' People of humanity in our time would not be guilty of using such an expression as this. No one thing shows the general moral advance of the American people more strongly than their treatment of and increased consideration for the humbler classes among them.—Howe's Historical Recollections of Ohio.

Mosquitoes

The bill of a mosquito is a complex organization. It has a flint forkent the head and is apparently grooved. Working through the groove and projecting from the angle of the fork, is a lance of perfect form sharpened with a fine bevel. While it the most perfect lance looks like a hand saw. On either side of the lance two saws are arranged, with the points fine and sharp and the teeth well defined and keen. The backs of these saws play against the lance. When the mosquito alights with his prey in him, it thrusts its keen lance, and then engages the victim with the two saws, which play beside the lance until the forked bill with its capillary arrangement for pumping blood in is inserted. The sawing process to which gnates upon the nerves of the victim and causes him to strike wildly at the sawyer.—Hall's Journal of Health.

Whence Come the Flies?

From where do all the flies come? The question is often asked, and is seldom received as satisfactory an answer as has been given by a contemporary. The common fly lays more than 100 eggs, and the time from egg laying to maturity is only about two weeks. Most of us have studied geometrical progression. Here we see it illustrated. Suppose one fly commences to multiply and replenish the earth about June 1. June 15, if all lived, would give 150. Suppose seventy-five of these are females, July 1 would give us, supposing no cold wasp or other untoward circumstances to interfere, 11,250 flies. Suppose 5,625 of these are females, we might have July 15, 843,750 flies. Perform the multiplication I will not calculate what might be by Sept. 15.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Foods for the Nervous

Many brain workers and others of highly nervous temperament are troubled with insomnia, nervous twitchings and irritating from sleep and sensations of falling. These symptoms indicate weak nerves. The victim can very often induce cure himself by dietetic means alone. The best diet is milk, and for a time it would be wise for him to limit himself to that. The quantity required by an adult to support him well is one pint at a meal and four meals should be taken daily. The milk used should be up to the standard, if it is not, cream should be added to it. People with weak nerves, as a rule, drink but very little water, whereas they usually require a larger quantity than those whose nerves are strong and not easily shaken.—Boston Herald.

THE surplus in the New York banks was small this year at the beginning of July and the beginning of August. The fact, however, that it was larger at the latter date than the former, which is contrary to the general rule, is a decidedly encouraging feature of the monetary situation.

Pneumonia and Bronchitis carry off One-Third of the Human Race.

It is not generally known that Pneumonia and Bronchitis carry off one-third of the human race, but such are the facts and what is more surprising, both of the above diseases result from neglecting a common ordinary Cold. A Cough should never be neglected. If this, every time you catch cold you cough harder and it sticks by you longer. Ballard's Horehound Syrup is the best remedy in the world for Pneumonia, Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung troubles. If you have any Throat trouble, call for Ballard's Horehound Syrup and take no other.

FRIDAY EVE., AUGUST 9, 1889

Surgeon General Jones.

Gov. Forker of Ohio, has appointed Dr. Roland Jones of London a Surgeon General on his staff, to succeed Gen. A. E. Jones, who is recent nominee by his servant candidate in much excitement in Cincinnati and throughout the state. The new appointee is a brother of Mr. E. A. Jones, of this city and is known to many of our citizens through his frequent visits here. He is a prominent citizen of Ohio and has held many offices in the state, most recently that of member of the state board.

The Great Fair of 1892

The great World's Fair of 1892, intended to celebrate the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of America, promises to be the most absorbing public question of the near future, and as there only remain three years to prepare for it the work of getting it ready must be pushed with vigor. The proposition of Chicago to raise a fund of one million dollars may be looked upon as an earnest purpose to succeed. One of the leading citizens of Chicago struck the keynote when he said the question of the location of the fair is not to be a fight between Chicago and New York, or between City and any other city but a fight between the west and the east. It is undeniably an eminently proper thing to determine that the great exposition of 1892 shall be specifically a western matter, an illustration of the wonderful progress not only of the four centuries that have elapsed since the discovery of Columbus, but of the comparatively recent date at which the mighty Mississippi Valley began to be peopled and cultivated. The world will be interested in seeing what the west can do, and the east will hold up our hands while we are about it.

In answer to the question "What is South Dakota?" a local editor says: In gold production it is exceeded by California. In silver it is inferior to Nevada. In lead she is a rival of Wisconsin and Missouri. Her coal fields are greater in extent than those of Iowa or Illinois. Her timber is richer than Michigan's. Her grapes are sweeter than those of Nova Scotia. Her marble quarries are as large as those of Vermont or Italy. She produces better wheat than Russia or India. More corn is grown in South Dakota than in Egypt. In live stock production she leads twenty states. In commercial importance she surpasses old Venice. In antiquity she pulses the broken of ancient Greece.

Troubles of the I., D. & W.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 8.—The Indianapolis, Decatur & Western railroad is again in court in consequence of the failure to cover operating expenses and to pay the semi-annual interest on the first mortgage bonds, amounting to $1,800,000. Receivers of the New York bondholders to-day filed a petition in the United States circuit court asking the appointment of trustees. Judge Woods stated that he was unwilling to place the property in the hands of two trustees and suggested that some one should be agreed upon. E. B. Conference Chat on How to Get It. Notes at the Camp.

The camp-meeting at Oakland Park was devoted to day to a conference of the executive committee of the prohibition party of the state. Workers had arrived from many of the counties of the state. While the children's meeting was in session from 9 to 10 an earnest preliminary meeting of the workers present was held at the refreshment building. At 10 o'clock John W. Hart, of Rockford, chairman of the state committee, called the meeting to order, and on motion of Judge Baker, was selected as chairman, with J. A. Van Fleet, of Springfield, as secretary. Mr. Hart, on taking the chair, outlined the political situation in this state, severely arraigning both of the old political parties. Like other prohibition speakers he charged unfairness and a conspiracy of the leaders of both the old parties in the Pennsylvania campaign. He also dwelt upon the financial position and the necessity of means to carry on the work. He thought there ought to be raised a dollar from each prohibition voter.

Rev. Hughes, of Fulton county, made the opening prayer. It was decided to have five minute speeches.

H. B. Kepley said we must have money for organization, that the counties had to depend largely on local talent for speakers.

A letter was read from Elder W. H. Boles, saying that the Illinois state missionary society of the Christian church had just passed a resolution endorsing the prohibition party and saying that there were 100 prohibition preachers now assembled at the encampment of that church.

Geo. Lee, of Macoupin county, followed on the finance line, and suggested that all prohibitionists agree to pay a certain amount for three years during the war.

Benj. McFadden, of Champaign, offered a resolution that state central committee assess each county one dollar for each voter of the county. Its adoption was moved, which was followed by a motion to table, which was carried. A. J. Bassett, of Cook county, said each individual member of a party should do some work, and told about the work of his club. D. L. Dunn said we want to know what counties are organized, so as to know the work that can be done.

Judge Baker spoke briefly and said we must depend largely on local talent. Capt. D. H. Harris, of Lincoln, paid a high tribute to the Salvation Army, and their plan of organization, and the growth of prohibition at the present time is simply wonderful. Rev. J. H. Moughin of La Salle county said a few words. W. H. Mann came forward with a State Sentinel plan of organization. Tom J. Smith, of Bloomington, Rev. Brooks of Paris and others spoke briefly.

A committee of five was appointed to report a plan of organization at three o'clock. The committee is Capt. D. H. Harris, Rev. Hughes of Fulton county, Henry McFadden of Champaign, and A. J. Bassett.

Among those in attendance at the Conference were Capt. D. H. Harris, Elder P. I. Holton, Rev. Simson, Andrew Layman and others, of Lincoln; J. W. Haggard, D. S. Palmer and others from Bloomington, Hon. A. G. Anderson, Colfax, Geo. Lee, Macoupin county, J. A. Bassett of Cook county, James Lamont, of Rockford, Mr. and Mrs. Dalby, Taylorville, H. B. Kepley, Hingham, Lafe Swing, Mason City, Rev. Brooks, Paris.

Several addresses will be delivered to-night.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Good Templars held the fort on the platform at the camp yesterday afternoon and heard speeches of eloquence delivered by Charles T. Holt, John Sobieski and others. Mr. Sobieski of the special of the temperance sentiment in foreign lands.

NIGHT MEETING.

John Sobieski was the main attraction at night, when he had a large and attentive audience to hear his lecture on "Poland." Mr. S. is a descendant of a royal family of Poland, and years ago was exiled from that country, taking refuge in England. He is a man widely known in Good Templar circles, and is among the earnest third party advocates.

A Peddler Tries the Sympathy Dodge on Justice Provost.

To day there was an affecting scene in the office of Justice Provost, with a nomadic Jewish peddler as the chief mourner Mike George was the central figure He had been arrested by Officers Batts and Baylor for peddling notions in the city without a license, and when taken in the poor man said he had but a dollar to his name When searched the prisoner had over $90 in hard cash in a belt fastened around his waist next his hide The cash was confiscated for safe keeping, and this morning when George was brought before the Justice he gracefully and tearfully weakened, going down before the city ordinance with but little resistance Tapping his breast with both hands, he made his little speech to the Scales something after this style

"Oh, Master Squire, you'll not be hard on me a poor mans trying to make a living in dis town. Nothings have I but dese little trinkets and I gells 'em to de good peoples You bee a good man next to God, and won't be hard on me I pleads guilty

And thereupon the tender hearted Squire fined the prisoner from Jerusalem the lowest line $25 and costs making a total of $29 George came near fainting when he heard the fatal judgment, but the law had the dead each on him All of his money was returned to him except the $29 and the prisoner walked out into the street, saying he would leave the city, as he couldn't seem to thrive here and pay the license he had paid Another thing papers found in George's effects were licenses he had procured in other cities visited He knew as well as the officers that he ought to have a license, but in trying to evade the law in Decatur he was a heavy loser

A most freely coloured person passed uncomfortably close to the back of one of the workmen yesterday while he was at work excavating a cellar in Millikin's addition at the west end of Northside Park It is supposed that it was fired by a person in the woods near by Shooting so near town is a dangerous practice and should be topped by the authorities

Morgan is Wanted

A friend informs us that Mr Albert S Morgan of this city, is in receipt of a letter from the president of a leading association ball club, asking his terms and ability to take charge of a club for the remainder of the season All Decatur lovers of the national game can certify that Mr Morgan is the best all round base ball manager in Central Illinois having organized the first club Decatur ever had in 1886, and gave the superb game with the St Louis Browns the Pittsburgs, the Louisville and defeating the Rockly Ash and other teams, later in the large cities When he took the management it was but a short time until he had a strong team together, and he had perfect control of the men Jimmy Rines, now with Kansas City was one he discovered and Keck, with Indianapolis was another He also tried to draw in Bumpson but you know Sidey this day Spitler with Louisville and the management were too slow Mr Morgan not only knows a good player but he has a way of getting good work when others fail Out in Springfield he was personal acquaintance with the players themselves They all like Al, and there are good men on the diamond to day who, if put together by Morgan would play winning games Since Mr Morgan went out of business in Chicago he has been defeated all home by the third ward but wife who was happy to stay now contented The association club that wants Mr Morgan will get a tireless worker and a man who has perfect control of players and a manager who will always attend strictly to business We learn to day that a Western League club has also asked Mr Morgan for his terms

Tired of Kansas.

J. S. Manley, a brick-maker and bricklayer, who has been in business at Topeka, Kansas, for 21 years, passed through Decatur yesterday in two "prairie schooners" on his way to Flint, Mich, where his parents reside and where he will engage in business. There were 13 people in his party. His wife lived in Decatur when she was 8 years old Her maiden name was Jennie Scott, daughter of Jeremiah Scott, who many years ago conducted the old Pennsylvania House, now known as the Hotel Brunswick. In her chat with the REPUBLICAN reporter, Mrs Manley stated that she scarcely recognized Decatur, as the city had grown almost out of her recollection. She could not remember where she attended school and she could recollect but few names She remembered the families of George Goodman and Thomas Albert

Done Up by Arcola

Johnny Wagoner's crack base ball team, "The K & W's," met their first defeat at the park yesterday afternoon when the Arcola Browns confronted them It was a good game all through except in the third inning, when Winegardner, of the Decatur team, was very poorly supported The battery work on both sides was clever and the hitting frequent enough to suit the bleaching bound crowd But, the Arcola Mascot, in uniform was a hodoo for the K & W's He was active in the performance of his duties that strangers thought he was the manager of the visiting club The score at the close of the eighth inning was

Arcola	0	2	5	1	0	0	0	0	8
Decatur	0	1	0	2	1	1	0	0	7

The ball that Arcola knocked over the fence in the eighth inning could not be found and the game came to a close Two other balls were lost in like manner

MONITOR BAND VICTORY

Rousing Welcome Home Cheers and Fireworks.

During the war the famous Monitor became borne of the Mississippi by sinking the Rebel ram, the Merrimac, that great inventment electrifying the world and Ericsson's name in the North, and again our factory repeat itself in the grand victory earned at the Lincoln barbecue and band tournament yesterday, when the Decatur colored musicians forming the Monitor Cornet Band, entered the competitive contest and by their superior playing and military bearing, walked off with the first prize $25 in cash There were numerous bands present, but when the starter heard the Monitor boys play, they threw up the sponge, thus acknowledging in advance their superiority However the Lincoln and Springfield bands played valiantly in a hopeless struggle for the prize, but the judges had to give in to the Monitor Band, and again in Decatur at the front The joy of the band in an hour better imagined than described They had practiced industriously night after night determined to win and they got there Hooray! The members of the organization are, W Cooper, of Jacksonville, musical director, Owen Blodgett, first cornet H Langford, 2d first cornet Gus Greer, E flat cornet John Moore, solo alto, Wm Hammond, first alto Will Thompson first tenor Wm Cooper, baritone, Wm Douglas and P Chase, tubas Robert Stewart bass drum Brunt Fields, snare drum Dick Thorp, drum major

A GLORIOUS RECEPTION

The train bearing the victorious home could not travel fast enough for them, for they wanted to shake up old Decatur with the news But they were hurriedly prepared for the coming reception City received All the Baptist church corner the Monitor boys were met by Goodman's band, and a procession was formed with Drum Major Thorp at the head The tune was "See the Conquering Hero Comes," and the procession paraded all manner around Lincoln square to Marshall street, the headquarters of the victors, where the Monitor band was received the personal congratulation of friends and played selections without number in response to the affect the crowd for more music In the midst of the hurrah there was a great display of fireworks which our special reporter fails find He lost Days of Tempest in the shed It paled into insignificance in comparison with the parade but exhibition in honor of the victorious colored band At a late hour the crowd reluctantly dispersed and the victor were then permitted to rest weary
